TERMS OF SALE

All coins and bills guaranteed genuine.

New bidders or customers sending in bids for the first time must positively give first class reference, bank reference preferably, or else send a deposit of at least 25% of the total amount of bids. Otherwise, their bids will not be accepted; application of such deposit will be made upon successful bids; the seller reserves the right to demand payment upon successful bids before delivery in his sole discretion. To those known to me who have established credit, a reference or deposit is not necessary and purchases will be sent out promptly after the sale. In appreciation of this courtesy the purchaser remits promptly.

Collectors who make unlimited bids will get the lots at 5% above the highest actual bid entered.

The terms are prompt cash settlement after sale, and no time given. Collectors who are not certain that they can pay promptly are asked not to bid. The coins in the sale are the property of my clients, and I must make prompt settlement for them.

Remit by money order, draft, check, or in any way most convenient. Stamps accepted for accounts that are below one dollar only.

Coins will be bought below your bids where other offers permit, as this is competitive bidding, executed in good faith.

The usual charge of 5% will be made for executing your bids, and for packing and sending out material. No charge made on anything not actually purchased. This fee is very low for the superior service I expect to give you.

Receipted bills are not sent out after your remittance as this is unnecessary. Your check, draft or money order itself is a receipt. However, if a 3-cent stamp is enclosed we will send receipt.

Be certain that you bid on the lot you wish to buy. We will correct errors and adjust claims, but you should not expect us to pay for your mistakes. Be careful in making your bids. Be sure that you bid on the lot you wish to buy, and at so much per piece.

Bids must reach me by the morning of the sale. Mail them in time so as to avoid disappointment. At each sale some bids arrive too late to be executed.

All bids are entered as received and lots distributed to the highest bidder without reserve. When two or more bids are the same, and there are no higher bids, the first received gets the lot. When two or more unlimited bids on a certain lot are sent, the first one received gets the lot at a 5% advance over the highest actual bid.

Between the seller and buyer, my position in describing the condition of coins and bills has been neutral. My classifications are generally considered to be conservative, by the collecting public.

It is easy to bid by mail. If you do not know how much to bid on any items, write me giving numbers in catalog and I shall be glad to inform you as to values. It is useless and a waste of time to make low bids that have no chance of success. I sincerely hope that each collector acquires some nice lots from this sale that give him a real thrill and joy of satisfaction.

Please bid by the piece unless stated to bid for the lot. Thus, if there are 12 pieces in a lot and you wish to pay $6 for the lot, then bid 50c. At each sale someone bids by the lot. Don't do this—bid by the piece.

Notice—A printed list of all the prices realized at this sale will be sent for one dollar, cash with order in advance. This is the best way to keep posted on actual present-day coin selling values. We mail over 2,000 catalogs for each sale, and hold the record of 525 bid sheets representing more than that number of collectors patronizing one sale, with actual bids.

COIN CHATTER

Twenty Years Ago. Yes, I am the dealer, who, exactly 20 years ago this month, in a full page advertisement on the outside cover of the Philatelic West magazine, now Hobbies, offered Panama Pacific half-dollars at 90 cents each! Of the several hundred in stock at the time, I sold exactly fourteen, through the ad. Collectors were slow in buying them in view of a price reduction. People buy when the prices go up! Upon my return from the army I had no difficulty in selling them at $3 each. Those were the good old days when dealers could get all the commemorative coins they needed for their trade from the commissions, and collectors weren't held up for a big profit by the dealer either. Usually they were issued at $1 and we sold them at $1.25. The old established dealers did not bring about the present state of affairs relative to commemoratives. It was unscrupulous speculators, who were not numismatists.

There May Be a Couple More to Get. Up to time for going to press, there has been, since Jan. 5, 1937, not less than 31 new bills introduced into Congress for the passage of laws for new issues of commemorative half-dollars. We do not think that nearly all of them will be enacted, and we will try to keep our readers informed about any progress.

Cents and Sense. Where are the small cents going to? In price, I mean? There are as many of them as ever, for collectors, but the demand has so increased that few collectors are content until they are the proud owner of a bushel of them. I well remember the days when I would buy them by the hundred or oven thousand at 4 or 5 cents each, all uncirculated and proof condition. Included would be the scarce early dates and 1864 "L" on ribbon, now a $5 coin. All were Indian heads, of course, for that was the days before the Lincoln heads. Sometimes they sold at auction at 3 cents each.

An Auction Sale 62 Years Ago. We have just examined the pages of a priced catalog of a New York auction held in 1875. It took 5 days to sell 2,400 lots. Sales began at 3 p. m. each day, after any real day's work should be over. We presume that was so that local business men and workers could attend sessions. While some American coins brought prices almost equal to those of today, some series sold very low. $2.50 gold pieces of 1796, no stars, very fine sold at $6.12; 1796 with stars, proof at $16 (today a $300 coin). 1797 quarter-eagle, unc. sold at $14 (now a $400 coin). 1808 very fine sold at $3.25, less than today's gold value, and a $50 coin now. 1824 quarter-eagle sold at $3.25, today worth $100, a proof. $2.50 gold pieces of 1829, 1830, and 1831 sold in perfect gem condition at $3 each. A 1795 $10 gold piece uncirculated sold at $21; 1796 v.

fine at $16; 1799 to 1803 all dates unc. brill. at $12 to $13 each; 1836 flying eagle dollar, proof at $9; 1836 pattern gold dollars, proof at $2.25 each; 1804 dollar at $325; 1802 half dime with clear date for $23; rare date half-cents of 1831, 1836, and in the 40's, originals, choice, at $5 to $8 each. The following date half-eagles sold for from $6 to $20 each, and are today worth $200 to $500 each: 1819, 1820, 1821, and all dates from 1823 to 1834 inclusive, the 1834 being with large head. The prize of the sale was a 1792 Washington coin in gold, probably unique, and which sold at $500. Some coins brought more than today, especially ancient coins. For example, a silver tetradrachm of Alexander the Great, very good, sold for $5.50, and today brings only about $2.50. Medals brought more then, too.

Next Sale in May. The 109th auction will be held in May or June. Only one more sale this season. Then the warm summer months of vacation, and coin sales will begin again in September. None in July or August. The 109th catalog is already in preparation. Send in your collection at your earliest convenience to assure entry in that sale.

LAST SUMMER ABROAD

The good night's sleep was as refreshing as an Atlantic salt water bath and the Norwegian chef's "frokost." Better tuck away some of the generous supply of butter rosettes in your vest pocket, should your habits in America call for butter with your luncheon or dinner. Dark war days of 1918 are recalled as we tackle the hard-tack and brown substitute breadstuffs.

After breakfast we are busy with deck sports, perhaps the most popular being shuffleboard. Tournaments are arranged. Band and orchestra concerts are enjoyed. Then there is the large and quiet library. In the social hall are games of bridge and five hundred. Acquaintances are fast formed, good friends made, and pleasant conversations bring profit. The skies are sunny and the sea blue. The swimming pool is opened. Everyone is taking their own movies.

We have the Captain's own word that everyone is kept busy. At one of his lectures, which always begin, of course, exactly on schedule, he made the following most pointed remark, when a late arriving party disturbed both speaker and audience. In his dry humor Capt. Irgens remarked, "Some people have so much to do on the ship they find it difficult to be on time."

I had risen early for my bath, as on ships the bath stewards are as busy as Chicago attorneys or New York bankers, and can be seen by appointment only. So I signed up for six each morning. Well, the salt water bath is just all right, anyway you don't have to be saving with the water! But I felt sorry for one old Irishman, a quick little shriveled-up old fellow whose keen wit and patience and hard toil had brought him this far in the world with some success. Now he was asking for a bath. The Norske steward could not understand him, and still less make himself understood. I was too amused to either interpret or interrupt. The dialogue was killing me. The Irishman begged and prayed in his distress, and disappeared.

The next morning at six I walked right into my ready bath. As I came out, there was the Irishman in animated conversation with the Norwegian, neither of them understanding one word. I explained to the Irishman that he would have to get an appointment, due to the demand.
